

AVGS MPAV · PRIVATE JOB PLACEMENT

Looking for work in Germany?

We help you – free of charge with the AVGS MPAV.

Jobnet.Works supports jobseekers in finding a suitable job in Germany. If you are registered with the Jobcenter, you can receive an AVGS voucher for private job placement (AVGS MPAV) under certain conditions.

- ✓ Registration possible without AVGS MPAV
- ✓ There are no placement costs for you.
- ✓ AZAV-approved job placement

1 THE VOUCHER

Get free support with your job search through the AVGS MPAV

The Activation and Placement Voucher for private job placement (AVGS MPAV) makes it possible, under certain conditions, to use the support of a private job placement agency. Once your Jobcenter has approved an AVGS MPAV and the requirements are met, the Jobcenter covers the costs of a successful placement.

2 NO VOUCHER YET?

You don't have an AVGS MPAV yet?

You can still register with Jobnet.Works right away.

If you are registered with the Jobcenter, you can also ask your contact person whether an AVGS voucher for private job placement (AVGS MPAV) is possible for you.

SAY THIS AT YOUR JOBCENTER (IN GERMAN)

„Ich möchte Unterstützung durch eine private Arbeitsvermittlung bei meiner Jobsuche nutzen. Kann ich dafür einen AVGS MPAV erhalten?“

“I would like to use the support of a private job placement agency in my job search. Can I receive an AVGS MPAV for this?”

For example, for an email or your next appointment.

Registration with Jobnet.Works is free of charge. With a valid AVGS MPAV and if the funding requirements are met, placement is free of charge for you.

Note: An AVGS MPAV is issued by the responsible Jobcenter. An AVGS MPAV is not issued automatically. Funding and the coverage of costs depend on the applicable requirements.
